Andre,

Attached are the documents we obtained from the Elkhart Circuit Court concerning First Federal Savings Bank's lawsuit against Richard Swift. According to the Proof of Service, as of February 9, 2016, Swift was located at NON- in Middlebury. I have not confirmed whether or not he is still there, but that is the most recent address we have for him. I hope this helps.

Thanks,

Rod

I'd suggest meeting at Yoder Ainley here in town if they have a room available. If not, let me know and I'll reserve one here in our building.

Hi Andy,

June 8th at 11:00 am in Goshen works for us. Are we going to meet at Becky's office? If not, we can arrange to have a conference room available at our local counsel's office which is just down the street. Let us know which you would prefer.

Thanks,

Rod

Hi Rod,

Sorry it took so long to get back to you...

So, I was thinking that Andre and I could meet everyone in Goshen so it would be easier for Becky, also you guys coming from Indy. How does Wednesday June 8th sound for everyone? Say 11 am or so?

Let us know, thanks. If you still want to do Chicago, that's not a problem either.

Hi Andy,

As we discussed on the phone, we have learned some new information about the demolition at the former Johnson Controls site in Goshen, Indiana that we thought you and your attorney would want to know. If you have any time the first or second week of June, my partner, Tom Barnard, and I would be happy to meet with you and your attorney at your office in Chicago. I also plan to invite Becky Hershberger to attend. However, since the meeting will be in Chicago I don't know if she will be able/interested in going.

Please let me know if there is a time that will work for you and we will make ourselves available.

Thanks,

Rod
